Rich Stakes Offered to the Torfines During the Coming Season.

With the first day of the new year the entries to the great Futurity Stakes close. The race will be run at the fall meeting of the Concy Island Jorkey (Tab in 1880. The stake is for two year olds and has 20,000 added, and the conditions of the race are such that no horseman owing a thoroughbred mare of any account should fall to enter. To the fortunate owners of the first three borses in the race the winnings alone. three horses in the race the winnings alone amount to quite small fortunes, as the extended of the stake alone will be about $175,000. Already $21 entries have been made. Of the events to be run off this seaton at the June meeting at Coney lained there are nineteen handlengs, sweep-stakes and other races to close on the same day, to which the large sum of $25,000 is added in money, and with the other races dready closed the total of added noney to this one needing amounts to over $50,000. Of these, fifteen chosed with the secretary on New Year's Day, and $50,000 will be added for ten racing. To the St. James Hotel Stakes Captain William M. Connor has generously donated a piece of plate valued at $500 in addition to the added money, $1,250 for the winner. Of the fifteen races to be run five are for two-year-olds, five for three-year-olds, and the balance for three-year-olds and upwards. All these events are to be run at various distances that should not fail to commend them to owners of thoroughbreak from the sprinter to the stayer.

Traveling Westward, the St. Louis Jockey Club for a ten days' meeting offers in added money $50,000 in stakes and purses. At Louisville the exhibit should not fail to conjude the spring meeting close at the same time as those of the St. Louis Club, January 15.

At Louisville the most notable evant closing on that day is the Great Kentucky Stakes for 1886, which it is anticipated, will be worth about $40,000 to the winner, or in all about $50,000 to the winner, or in all about $50,000 to the winner. Considerable doubt has been expressed in sporting circles about Freeland, who in company with many others of Mr. Ed. Corrigan's string will winter at Memphia. From latest reports, however, there may be some chance of the conqueror of Miss Woodford being seen in public again next eason, Lucky Baldwid's crack Verano, who has been under a cloud for some time, will probably stand a prepartion.
